

GOODFELLOW INC.
BY-LAW NO. 2021-2 - ADVANCE NOTICE OF NOMINATIONS OF DIRECTORS

Section 1.1 Introduction

The purpose of this By-law of the Corporation is to provide shareholders, directors and management of the Corporation with guidance on the nomination of directors. This By-law is the framework by which the Corporation seeks to fix a deadline by which shareholders of the Corporation must submit director nominations to the Corporation prior to any annual or special meeting of shareholders and sets forth the information that a shareholder must include in the notice to the Corporation for the notice to be in proper written form. This By-law is intended to: (i) facilitate orderly and efficient annual general meetings or, where the need arises, special meetings; (ii) ensure that all shareholders receive adequate notice of director nominations and sufficient information with respect to all nominees; and (iii) allow shareholders to register an informed vote.

It is the belief of the Corporation and the board of directors of the Corporation that this By-law is in the best interests of the Corporation.

 - (ii) complies with the notice procedures set forth below in this By-law.

Section 1.4 Nominations for Election

For the avoidance of doubt, the procedures set forth in this By-law shall be the exclusive means for any person to bring nominations for election to the Board before any annual or special meeting of shareholders of the Corporation.

Section 1.5 Timely Notice

In addition to any other applicable requirements, for a nomination to be validly made by a Nominating Shareholder, the Nominating Shareholder must have given timely notice thereof in proper written form to the corporate secretary of the Corporation in accordance with this By-law.

Section 1.6 Manner of Timely Notice

To be timely, a Nominating Shareholder’s notice to the corporate secretary of the Corporation must be made:

- (a) in the case of an annual meeting of shareholders (including an annual and special meeting), not less than thirty (30) days prior to the date of the meeting, provided, however, that if the first public announcement of the date of the meeting

(the “Notice Date”) is less than fifty (50) days before the meeting date, notice by the Nominating Shareholder shall be made not later than the close of business on the tenth (10th) day following the Notice Date;

- (b) in the case of a special meeting (which is not also an annual meeting) of shareholders called for any purpose which includes electing directors (whether or not also called for other purposes), not later than the close of business on the fifteenth (15th) day following the Notice Date;

provided that, in either instance, if notice-and-access (as defined in Regulation 54-101 – Communication with Beneficial Owners of Securities of a Reporting Issuer) is used for delivery of proxy related materials in respect of a meeting, and the Notice Date in respect of the meeting is not less than fifty (50) days prior to the date of the applicable meeting, the notice must be made not later than the close of business on the fortieth (40th) day before the applicable meeting (but in any event, not prior to the Notice Date); provided, however, that in the event that the meeting is to be held on a date that is less than fifty (50) days after the Notice Date, notice by the Nominating Shareholder shall be made, in the case of an annual meeting of shareholders, not later than the close of business on the tenth (10th) day following the Notice Date and, in the case of a special meeting of shareholders, not later than the close of business on the fifteenth (15th) day following the Notice Date.

The adjournment or postponement of an annual meeting or special meeting of shareholders or any announcement thereof shall not give rise to a new time period for the giving of a timely notice as provided above.

Section 1.7 Proper Form of Notice

To be in proper written form, a Nominating Shareholder’s notice to the corporate secretary of the Corporation must be in writing and must set forth or be accompanied by, as applicable:

The Corporation may also require any Proposed Nominee to furnish such other information, including completion of the Corporation's directors questionnaire, as it may reasonably require to determine whether the Proposed Nominee would be considered "independent" as a director or as a member of the audit committee of the Board under the various rules and standards applicable to the Corporation in the same manner as such rules and standards are applicable to the Corporation's other directors.

In addition to the provisions of this By-law, a Nominating Shareholder and any Proposed Nominee shall also comply with all of the applicable requirements of the Act, Applicable Securities Laws and applicable stock exchange rules regarding the matters set forth herein.

Section 1.8 Currency of Notice

All information to be provided in a Nominating Shareholder's notice pursuant to this By-law shall be provided as of the date of such notice. To be considered timely and in proper form, a Nominating Shareholder's notice shall be promptly updated and supplemented if necessary, so

Section 1.9 Power of the Chair

The chair of the meeting shall have the power and duty to determine whether a nomination was made in accordance with the procedures set forth in this By-law and, if any proposed nomination is not in compliance with this By-law, to declare that such defective nomination shall be disregarded.

Section 1.10 Delivery of Notice

Notwithstanding any other provision of this By-law, notice given to the corporate secretary of the Corporation pursuant to this By-law may only be given by personal delivery or by email (at such email address as stipulated from time to time by the corporate secretary of the Corporation for purposes of this notice), and shall be deemed to have been given and made only at the time it is served by personal delivery or email (at the aforesaid address) to the corporate secretary of the Corporation, at the address of the head office of the Corporation, provided that if such delivery or electronic communication is made on a day which is not a business day or later than 5:00 p.m. (Montreal time) on a day which is a business day, then such delivery or electronic communication shall be deemed to have been made on the subsequent day that is a business day.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board may, in its sole discretion, waive any requirement in this By-law.

Section 1.12 Effective Date
